☞ The GAZETTE will in future be published on WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, immediately after the arrival of the Expresses.

BY WEDNESDAY'S EXPRESS.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.

BUFFALO, August 13, 1814.

"I expect you are anxious to hear news from this quarter. I arrived here yesterday, and will give you what has lately taken place. This morning the enemy commenced a brisk cannonade on Fort Erie, which has been returned from thence and from our batteries on this side. It has continued four or five hours, and will probably last all day, and what the event will be I cannot conjecture.

"A few days ago our squadron at the head of Lake Ontario ran one of the enemy's schooners on shore about four miles above Fort George, where the crew abandoned and blew her up. She carried 14 guns.

I am sorry to inform you that last night the enemy boarded and succeeded in capturing the United States' schooners Ohio and Somers, which lay within musket shot of Fort Erie, and I saw them this morning lying about two miles below Black Rock, near the Canada shore.

Major Morgan, of the rifle corps, was killed yesterday afternoon in an attack on one of the enemy's pickets."

In our last we published a letter from Detroit, dated July 24th, giving a geographical sketch of the upper Lakes, the Island of Mackinac, and the means the enemy have of defending that Island against the late expedition.

Being assured that the writer had a perfect knowledge of that country, we made no comments. In the same paper, however, we published from the Ohio Eagle, that Mackinac was ours

By letters received in this town from Detroit, dated the 7th inst. it appears that no news had been received there of the surrender of Mackinac to our forces, but that serious doubts were entertained of the success of Col. Croghan's expedition, as it was fully ascertained that the enemy had strongly fortified that island, and would defend it to the last extremity

Extract of a letter from a gentleman at Detroit to his friend in this place, dated August 7, 1814.

"Gov. Cass has just arrived from the treaty at Greenville, accompanied by a number of Indian warriors, who have taken up arms against their late friends the British. We have but little room on them, for should the enemy pay us a visit, I have no hesitation in saying that all these fellows would again join their standard."

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.
PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS great and weighty matters claiming the consideration of the Congress of the U. S. form an extraordinary occasion for convening them, I do by these presents, appoint Monday the 19th day of September next, for their meeting at the City of Washington; hereby requiring the respective Senators and Representatives then and there to assemble in Congress, in order to receive such communications as may then be made to them, and to consult and determine on such measures as in their wisdom may be deemed most for the welfare of the U. States.

In testimony whereof, I have caused the seal of the United States [L. S] to be hereunto affixed, and signed the same with my hand.

Done at the City of Washington, the eighth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and of the Independence of the United States, the thirty-ninth.

THE APPROACHING ELECTION.

THIS salutary institution of annual or frequent elections, forms one of the most valuable blessings of our public code, and the present alarming state of our national concerns, calls for the exercise of that right with the most serious attention and solemnity. If we are seriously and duly impressed with the various dreadful calamities which have already resulted from the prosecution of the present war both by land and water; if our eyes are not blinded and our hearts steeled against all the tender feelings of humanity, will we not deplore with bleeding hearts the unhappy fate of our fellow citizens and soldiers who have already fallen victims to those terrible scourges of the sword, fire, and pestilence; if we are not rendered totally blind by the infuriate passions of pride, ambition or vengeance, can we hope for the accom-

ALBANY, August 4.

OUR ONTARIO FLEET CERTAINLY SAILED.

The western mail of last night furnished us with the two following letters, one from Sackett's Harbour, and the other from Utica:

TO THE EDITOR.

"Sackett's Harbour, Aug. 1, 1814.

"SIR,—I have at length the gratification to announce to you the departure of the fleet. Com. Chauncey, having recovered a sufficient degree of health to resume his duty, was conveyed on board, and with all the force under his command, took his leave of the harbor yesterday morning. The spectacle, sir, was truly grand and beautiful. To see a fleet, consisting of ten sail in all, on an inland lake, some hundred miles from the ocean——sailing majestically down a bay, surrounded with the most picturesque scenery—and proudly advancing to meet a haughty and contemptuous foe of equal, if not superior, strength—was something so novel, so interesting and extraordinary, as to gratify the fancy, and excite the admiration of the most indifferent and stupid spectator. Suffice it to say, that the variety and elegance of the scene exceed my powers of description, and would furnish an excellent subject for the poet or the painter. About 1500 militia, commanded by Gen. Martin, have recently arrived at this post, to continue thirty days in service, if wanted so long. The officer now commanding the regular troops in this station, is Col. Mitchell: Gen. Gaines and suite having started for the westward immediately after the arrival of the news of the recent hard fought action at Queenston—in which Major Gen. Riall, with 20 of his officers and 200 troops, were taken prisoners, and which probably you have received some time since."

Utica, 2d August, 1814.

"Dear Sir,

"By a letter received from the Harbour, per express mail, I am informed that the fleet sailed yesterday morning, and were out of sight at 4 P. M. The British fleet were off the Harbour the day before."

PLATTSBURGH, July 30.

On Saturday last, two of our gun-boats captured, about a mile from the line, a raft, consisting of plank and spars valued at 5 or 6000 dollars, on board of which were twenty seven barrels of tar. The raft was owned by citizens of the United States, who were taking it over to the enemy; 6 or 8 of them were taken on board of it, and we understand have been delivered over to the civil authority for trial. A Mr. Holgate, of Milton, Vermont, is said to be the principal in this traitorous and diabolical business.

The enemy's vessel, according to the latest information, progresses very slowly, and is not in so great forwardness now, as it was reported to be eight or ten days ago.

On Thursday morning last, captain Nelson, of the 10th infantry, with a small detachment surprised the British picket at Smith's, in Odletown, killed a lieut. made nine prisoners, and put the rest to flight.

The prisoners, (a serjeant major, quarter master serjeant, 2 serjeants, and 5 privates) were brought to this place yesterday morning.

The enemy's Indians are constantly hovering about the lines.

BOSTON, August 8.

NORTHERN FRONTIER.

A gentleman who left Plattsburgh on Saturday last reports, that there were 2000 men at that place; that on Friday an enemy's picket guard was surprised, a lieut. and 2 men were killed and 9 men taken prisoners. The troops were under marching orders. It is said by prisoners and deserters that the British force has retreated from the head of the Lake to Kingston.

PHILADELPHIA, August 1.

Translation for the Boston Daily Advertiser.

PARIS, JUNE 6.

Count Bouguet is appointed Director General of Police; and has addressed circulars to the different Prefects. He says "too long has the Police been the blind instrument of Tyranny. But the King will ask nothing of us contrary to our consciences and our honor."

"The police hereafter instead of violating, in the darkness of night, the assylum of the citizens will watch round them to protect their repose. Instead of constraining the minds by secret persecutions, it will draw them by paternal persuasions. Instead of attempting to control the thoughts, it will leave them at liberty.

A project for a loan for the relief of agriculture has been published.

PARIS, JUNE 13.

M. Laisne, member from Bordeaux, is appointed president of the House of Deputies.

HAMBURGH, MAY 25.

Every thing around us appears to take new life. The Elbe is again covered with vessels of all sizes; and there have already entered here many rich cargoes. The road from Altona is covered with carriages, bringing here the effects which had been carried away. The rich and the poor again take possession of the habitations they had abandoned.

The Russian Gen. BENNINGSEN, is incessantly occupied with our council in regulations for our good. We are to give him a grand entertainment.

The senate will resume its functions on the 27th.

The 1st column of French troops quit this city to-day and to-morrow some Russian troops will occupy our fortifications.

A passenger in the Com. Decatur observes that he understood at La Rochelle, that in the negociation of the treaty between England and France, the British ministers were anxious to have Cherbourg and Toulon rendered unfit for naval depots; but that ALEXANDER said NO—offering to lend Louis XVIII 80,000 bayonets, and as much other stuff of the kind, rather than he should submit to such a sacrifice.

The following interesting articles from London papers are copied from the Boston Palladium.

LONDON, May 26.

The duke of Angouleme is appointed Grand Admiral of France, a post possessed by the duke de Penthievre before the revolution.

Davoust we are happy to find, is under arrest, principally at the instance of the proprietors of the Bank of Hamburg, to compel that unprincipled ruffian to disgorge his plunder.

The San Domingo, 80, Captain Pechell, has taken out her lower deck guns, for the purpose of receiving on board the British troops at Bordeaux, and bringing them to England. She will sail immediately.

May 28.

The Emperor of Germany proceeds almost immediately to Italy, upon very important business.

Negotiations with America.

The high pretensions attributed to ministers in the approaching negotiations with the American Commissioners, it is believed, have no foundation; but among the restrictions to be imposed on the Republicans, with regard to Canada, it is understood to have been determined to require of them, that on the Lakes of that country no ships shall be employed by them, either armed or above the measurement of 50 tons. The citizens of the United States are further to be obstructed in the fisheries; a computation has been delivered in by the persons in this trade for inspection of government, by which it appears that above half the fisheries had devolved to the Americans, from the advantages they possessed of proximity, and from other circumstances. In order to prevent this extensive encroachment, they are no longer to be permitted to prepare their fish either on the shores of Newfoundland or of Labrador. The produce of this commerce, at the present price of the markets, is estimated at nearly 4,000,000*l.* sterling.

Vice Admiral Sir A. Cochrane, by a proclamation issued at Bermuda, April 25, declares all the American ports, which were left open by Sir J. B. Warren's proclamation, to be in a state of strict and rigorous blockade; which will probably disappoint at once all Mr. Madison's attempts to procure money for the purpose of the Canadian war.

It is computed, that the reinforcements which have joined Sir George Prevost since the last campaign, will enable him to take the field with an army of 20,000 effective men. This force will move against the American army from the Canadian frontiers, whilst 12,000 of the best troops of the Duke of Wellington's army, commanded by Lord Hill, will be landed on the American shores, and commence by threatening Mr. Madison's capital. Lord Hill has arrived in London to receive his instructions for the campaign. The regt's. which are going from the south of France have all arrived in the neighborhood of Bordeaux to embark. The 3d of Buffs, and the 14th or 19th Light Dragoons, are among them. Six or eight of the weakest regt's. of the army will be reduced entirely, by allowing the men to volunteer into the regt's. under orders for the American service upon a bounty of five guineas for unlimited and three guineas for seven years service. The 1st battalions of the 83d and 93d regt's. are on their passage from the Cape of Good Hope to North America.

PHILADELPHIA, August 4.

From the Boston Gazette, Aug. 1.

DUTCH MINISTER ARRIVED.

On Thursday evening last put into Marblehead, the Dutch Sloop of War Ajax, and the merchant ship Prince of Orange, under her convoy, having on board his Excellency M. Changuion, the minister of his royal highness the prince of Orange to the U. S. with his family and suite.

The above vessels sailed from Marblehead on Friday morning, and anchored same day in light house channel, where they were detained by head winds and tide, until yesterday, when they came nearly up to the fort. Immediately on her casting anchor in the outer harbor on Saturday, a committee of the citizens of this metropolis went down in the Constitution's barge, to ascertain the time when his excellency would land in town, and to inform him, that the citizens of Boston were desirous to pay him the marks of respect due to to the representative of so early and distinguished a friend of the U. States, as the house of Orange.

He received the committee with great affability; expressed the pleasure he felt in this attention of the citizens of a country, in which he had no particular acquaintance, but to which he was tenderly attached. He wore in his hat the Orange ribbon, with the motto Orangie Bovem. He is about 45 years of age, of an excellent mein, of accomplished manners; speaks English very fluently and correctly; as does his secretary of Legation.—His Excellency will land this day: and escorted to his lodgings according to the arrangements of the marshal of the day.

FRENCH CONSTITUTION.

It is asked what does France gain by her treaty of Peace and her new Constitutional charter.

In the 1st place, she gains the loss of her late ferocious and bloody tyrant.

2dly. She gains the blessings of a monarchy, worthy of the crown, by his birth, his virtues, and consummate wisdom.

3dly. She gains the free and undisturbed liberty of worshipping God according to the dictates of every man's conscience.

4thly. She gains an unqualified abolition of the Conscription.

5thly. She gains the freedom of the Press, in all cases, not infringing on the laws.

6thly. She gains a full exemption from all taxes, not authorised by the legislature.

7thly. She has gained immense addition to her territory, both at home and abroad.

8thly. She has gained the restoration of Commerce, Agriculture and Manufactures.

BUFFALO, August 9.

We have nothing from the army at fort Erie since Wednesday 3d inst. The enemy appear as yet in considerable force opposite Black Rock. There has been skirmishing between the pickets almost every day, during the week past, which are reported in our favor. On Saturday the enemy appeared in rear of the fort; he was met by a party of our riflemen, and a smart skirmish ensued, in which from the best information he had from 10 to 15 killed; our loss was 4.

There has come in 6 or 7 deserters from the enemy, within a few days past.

Brig. gen. GAINES has arrived at fort Erie from Sackett's Harbor.

We understand that 1000 militia have been requested by maj. gen. Brown from maj. gen. Hall's division; they will be commanded by Lieut. Colonel Micah Brooks, and are reported on their march for Buffalo.

LEXINGTON, Aug. 8.

From the MISSOURI GAZETTE--Extra.

St. LOUIS, July 27, 1814.

IMPORTANT NEWS!

We should have furnished our readers with the following narrative of the late attempt to reach Praire de Chien, before now, had we not expected a statement before now of those who have returned. In this we have been disappointed, but assure our readers that although the following has been gleaned from conversation with some of the officers, yet it will be substantially correct.

DISASTER.

As soon as Gov. Clark returned from his successful expedition to Praire de Chien, it was tho't proper by brig. gen. Howard, commanding in this district, (who had in the interim returned to this place from Kentucky) to send a force to relieve the volunteers and preserve the acquisition so important to the welfare of our country.

For this purpose lieut. Campbell, of the 1st Regt. acting as brigade major, was entrusted with the command of 24 regulars, and 66 rangers, in three keel-boats; the contractor and suttlers boat in company.

The whole party, including boats, men and women, amounted to about 133 souls reached Rock river, within 180 or 200 miles of the Praire, without any accident. As soon as they entered the rapids, they were visited by hundreds of Sac's and Foxes, some of the latter bearing letters from the garrison above, to St. Louis;—the officers being unacquainted with Indian manners, imagined the savages to be friendly; to this fatal security may be attributed the catastrophe which followed. It appears that the suttlers and contractors' boat had arrived near the head of the rapids, and proceeded on, having on board the ammunition, with a sergeant's guard; the rangers in 2 barges followed, and had proceeded 2 miles in advance, of the commander's barge—the latter inclined to the East side in search of the main channel, and being now on a lee shore, proceeded with much difficulty; and as the gale increased, were drifted into shoal water, within a few yards of a high bank, covered with grass waist high; a few steps from the bow and stern, an umbrage of willows set out from the shore.

In this position the commanding officer tho't proper to remain until the wind abated; sentrys were placed at proper intervals, and the men were occupied in cooking, when the report of several guns announced an attack. At the first fire all the sentrys were killed, and before those on shore could reach the barge, 15 or 20 out of 30 were killed and wounded. At this time, the force and intentions of the Indians were fully developed.

On each shore the savages were observed in quick motion, some in canoes, crossing to the battle ground; others were obrerved running from above and below to the scene of attack; in a few minutes from 5 to 700 were assembled on the bank and among the willows within a few yards of the barge, the Indians gave a whoop and commenced a tremendous fire. The few surviving brave men in the barge cheered and returned the fire from a swivel and fire arms. At this critical juncture lts. Rector and Riggs, of the rangers, who commanded the two barges ahead, did not hear the guns, but seen the smoke, and concluded an attack was made, dropped down; Riggs' boat stranded about 100 yards below Campbell's and Rector, to avoid a like misfortune, and preserve himself from a raking fire, anchored above; both barges opened a brisk fire on the Indians; but as the enemy fired from coverts, it is tho't little execution was done. About 1 hour was spent in this unequal contest, when lieut. Campbell's barge was discovered on fire; to relieve which, Rector cut his cable and fell to windward of him and took out the survivors. Finding he could not assist Riggs, having a number of wounded on board, and in danger of running on a lee shore, he made the best of his way to this place, where he arrived on Sunday evening last. It is feared that the suttlers and contractors' boats have been taken, as they were not less than 6 miles ahead, and must be ignorant of the transaction below. Mr. B. O'Fallen, owned and conducted the suttlers barge. The contractor's barge had a full load of provision; so that in the event of their capture, the savages will glut their vengeance on the 20 or 30 defenceless men, and obtain a supply of about 2000 lbs. of gun powder, a considerable quantity of merchandize, and upwards of 200 bls. of pork, flour, whiskey, &c.

LIST OF KILLED & WOUNDED.

There were 8 regulars killed and 14 wounded, 2 died on their passage to this place; 1 ranger killed and 4 wounded on board of lt. Rector's barge.

Brigade major Campbell and Doctor Stewart are severely wounded.

Two women and a child were severely wounded; 1 of the women and the child is since dead.

Just as we had finished detailing the above unfortunate affair, we received the glad tidings of the arrival of lt. Riggs at Cape au Gray; he lost 3 men killed and 4 wounded. Would to heaven we could account for the other 2 barges.

CONSOLATARY.

As we were preparing the foregoing for press, the gun boat "Gov. Clark," commanded by capt. Yeiser, arrived here in 9 days from Praire de Chien, with the sutlers and contractors' barges, which were fortunately releived as the Indians were about to board them.

From the officers of the Gov. Clark, we learn the following news from the Praire:

On the 17th inst. the long expected British force appeared in view, marching from the Oisconsin toward the village; the line of regular troops, militia and Indians extended about 2 miles with 24 flags flying. A British officer arrived at the fort, demanded its surrender; Lieut. Perkins returned for answer that he was able and prepared to defend the post entrusted to his charge. Before the return of his flag the British commenced a fire upon the Gov. Clark, from a small battery of three 3 pounders, which was soon answered from a 6 pounder from the boat. Soon after the firing commenced, a large body of Indians and white troops crossed to the island in front of the village, and enabled them to fire on the boat at pistol shot distance and screen themselves behind trees from the grape which incessantly poured from the boat. In this manner the contest continued for 2 hours, until the gun boat received several shot between wind and water, when it was cloncluded to move down the river. By this movement down the narrow channel, they had to run the guantlet through a line of muquetry 8 miles.

On approaching the rapids, capt. Yeiser sent his skiff with 9 men down to reconnoitre, who seen Riggs's boat engaged with Indians and Campbell's barge on fire. These appearances induced the boat's crew to return and the Indians to call them on shore, raising to their view the English flag, believing them to be Mackinaw voyagers.

Before the return of the reconnoitering boat, the Gov. Clark joined the contractor's and suttler's boat. Those on board were ignorant of the fate of the boats below, and would in the course of a quarter of an hour, have been in the power of the savages, if they had not thus providentially been snatched from destruction.

Seven were wounded on board the Gov. Clark, viz: Lt. Henderson and Ensign St. Pierre, severely; 5 privates were wounded, 1 died on the way down the day after his leg was amputated.

plishment of those objects for which war was declared, by the further prosecution of it; on the contrary, do they not appear to be still further removed from our grasp, than on the day when Hull took up his line of march. Can we be ignorant of the power of the enemy, and the tremenduous force which is preparing for our chastisement, and that it is now about to overwhelm our frontiers from every point of the compass. If we cannot prevail upon the enemy to stay the ravages of war until the result of negociation is known, it is but too probable that the horrors we have already experienced are only emblems of what are laid up in store for us.

National calamities are generally produced by the folly and crimes of national rulers. If this is the case with respect to our war, the national voice ought to pronounce immediate judgment upon their guilt. Our war Bill was considered by its friends, as the greatest and most honorable production that ever sprung from the executive fountain of wisdom; and it was caressed and complimented by many of the states, as the darling child of the President. Indeed, such was the general joy at its birth, that the states most celebrated for patriotic parade, immediately and eagerly became its foster-fathers, and were ambitious to make the most flourishing displays of their paternal care and support. But the legislature of Pennsylvania have, above all others, signalized themselves in their attachment and liberality to this infernal beggarly brat. Such was their passion for feeding the blood-thirsty appetite of war, that they disdained to resort to the tardy and disgusting method of raising revenue by the common mode of taxation; a mode which might probably hazard their popularity, they wisely judged, that their safest course was, to dash into the treasury at once for three hundred and ten thousand dollars, which very few of the people would know any thing about. This sum it is thought nearly drained the treasury of its last dollar, which compelled them immediately to borrow another sum nearly equal perhaps, for the purpose of paying their own dirty shameful wages.

After these brief observations, I return to the real object of the text, "The approaching Election." The people of the United States inherit a sovereign power unknown to any other region of the earth, and if they suffer any political grievance to oppress them longer than till the return of their next elections, they deserve all the calamities which the government of a Bonaparte could possibly inflict. If we believe that our present calamities have originated in the folly and crimes of the general government, and that the legislature of Pennsylvania have been encouraging, aiding and abetting in the prosecution of those crimes, let us remove from our councils and our confidence as far as this election will permit, every representative who has, by his vote, his voice, and his influence, been instrumental in producing this terrible national grievance. It appears that nothing but an entire change of men and measures, and the true spirit of amicable negociation, can give us immediate or effectual relief.

Let it not be supposed, that in advising this change in our representation, that the author is influenced by the smallest degree of personal hostility to these gentlemen. It is their public conduct and opinions that he dislikes, and not their private character, for he has always esteemed them as good citizens and good neighbours.

If we persist in continuing the authors and supporters of this war in their present public stations, it will be giving them fresh authority to prolong it; and in the eye of a righteous God and all peaceable men, we will be viewed as accessaries in their crimes. In addition to this consideration, we have just reason to expect, that the innocent blood of thousands of our slaughtered citizens, as well as the enemy, together with the tears of helpless orphans, will call loudly to the righteous tribunal of Heaven for vengeance upon us, as accomplices in these scenes of misery and woe.

AN ELECTOR.

DIED, suddenly, on Tuesday evening last, at his seat in Ross township, opposite this place, JAMES ROBINSON, Esq. aged 65 years.

Mr. Robinson was a native of Ireland, but emigrated to America previous to the revolution.

He removed to the western country in 1774, and has resided in this place and vicinity ever since that period.

In the various relations of civil and social life, he was faithful, sincere and just. In domestic life, exemplary—a tender husband, an affectionate parent, a firm friend. Society, in his death, has been deprived of a useful and highly respectable member.

ARMY BLANKS,

Printed in the neatest manner, and on the shortest notice at this office.

☞ To Patriots.

GREAT injury has been done the public from the frequency of desertion of the soldiery in the service of the U. S. The most vigilant officer is baffled in his efforts to prevent the perjured scoundrel from deserting his country's cause in time of danger. Such rascals premeditatedly come forward, take a solemn oath to serve their country against her enemies & opposers whomsoever, receive the great inducement held out by government for to enlist honest men into her service, and then basely desert it, thereby defrauding the public.

The following inducements are offered to patriotic citizens to detect the perjured scoundrels.

Agreeably to the president's proclamation, FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD, with reasonable expences are paid for each deserter that any citizen or citizens may bring in and deliver to any commanding officer of any post or rendezvous in the U. S.

Further, the following arrangement is made, in addition to the pecuniary consideration for apprehending deserters: Any citizen or citizens who shall apprehend and deliver a deserter or deserters, shall have a certificate of the delivery of the same; and application will be made to the governor of the state, or secretary at war, for the exemption of such citizen or citizens from a tour of military duty.

An alarm will be made as follows: Immediately on the desertion of any soldier from this post, a 24 pounder, heavily charged, will be fired from the top of Grant's Hill, which may be heard at the distance of 10 miles, & in some instances further, to give the citizens an opportunity of being on the alert.

They are well adapted to carry off superfluous bile, and prevent its morbid secretions, to restore the appetite, to produce a free perspiration, and thus prevent Colds, which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a Cold, if taken on its first appearance. They are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness, sickness at the stomach, and severe head-ache, and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S

WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES,

Which have, within years past, cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from Worms, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This Medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar title, so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age & constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady, or an infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul, and and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders. The Lozenges are efficacious in taking off all gross humors and eruptions, feverish complaints, and the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasian.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a disorder which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is also the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a vast number when in advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

DOCTOR HANDY'S,

WORM DESTROYING

LOZENGES,

A safe and efficacious Medicine for destroying and bringing away

WORMS.

MAY be used with safety by children of any age, or as common physic by the most delicate constitution, in any climate, without restraint of diet, or the smallest danger from cold. It may be given with advantage after the small-pox or measles; or as a family medicine, in any case where physic is necessary. The most frequent seat of worms in the human body, is the intestinal tube; but occasionally they have been found in almost every other part of the body.

Some very extraordinary cases of Worms, of an unusual form and appearance, being brought away by these Lozenges, have been made public in England, where the rapid sale of the medicine has exceeded any thing of the kind ever known before; and has also proved, to a demonstration, its approved superiority, as an athelminthick, to the numerous puffed-up, useless nostrums, which are daily advertised in the newspapers.

A single dose of this valuable Medicine has often been known to remove half a pot-full of the Teres or Round Worms.

A few doses are generally sufficient to remove the Ascarides, a small white worm, the seat of which is either the stomach or rectum.

Even the Tape Worm, at all times the most difficult to destroy, may, by persevering in the frequent use of this medicine, be totally removed in the course of a few weeks.

To select cases, with the names of people who are not known here, and living at a great distance, would be useless, and take up too much of the reader's time. We shall therefore only observe, for the benefit of those who are unacquainted with the symptoms of worms, that they are known or suspected to exist by a pain in the stomach, attended with a sudden depression of spirits before eating; at other times, the belly is hard, painful and distended with wind—costiveness, head-ache, and trembling of the limbs, with a sense of something rising in the throat—pale complexion and emaciated body, with weakness and irregular appetite—convulsive, epileptic, or falling fits—pains in the back and side, and frequent itching of the nose, and sometimes of the anus. The above, and a long train of afflicting diseases may all be occasioned by worms, which are much oftener the cause of death than is commonly believed.

The above valuable Medicine is sold only by

Doctor CHISHOLM'S

Anti-Bilious Pills,

OF A QUALITY

Superior to any thing of the kind ever offered as a

GENERAL MEDICINE,

IN THIS COUNTRY,

Now prepared from a recipe of the celebrated Dr. Chisholm, who, from a long residence in the West-India islands, has been enabled to favor the world with the most complete history, and most approved methods of curing all the BILIOUS DISEASES of those warm climates

This extraordinary medicine, which now for the first time is finding its way into general practice, has properties in the highest degree superior to the mercurial nostrums so frequently recommended by the name of Anti-Bilious Pills. The extraordinary powers of this medicine as a solvent and evacuant of bile, is without example; never producing debility, or injuring the health, in the smallest degree, of the most delicate child, or weakly female.

The BILIOUS HEAD-ACHE, so much complained of in this country, and in the neighbourhood of rivers, is often removed by a single dose, which, to a strong man, is only five pills, and to a weakly woman, three. The same dose will generally remove the most excrutiating pains of the cholic, like a charm, by abusing the bile to pass downwards in the course of an hour or two.

Two or three Pills taken an hour before dinner, and repeated every third day, will effectually remove those diseases arising from flatulency and indigestion, and by persevering in the use of them for a considerable time, the appetite will be improved, and strength and vigor will return.

Two Pills taken at bed time, with a cup of penny-royal tea, and repeated every second night, will effectually remove Rheumatic pains, wherever seated.

A single Pill, taken every fourth hour with a cup of flax-seed tea, will cure Pleurisy, promote expectoration, and relieve coughs and colds.

In CONSUMPTIVE CASES and diseases of the liver, no medicine ever yet discovered, has been known to perform such cures. Two Pills, taken every third morning, will be found sufficient, unless costiveness prevails; in which case, the dose may be increased according to the strength or constitution.

The Dysentery, Croup, and Summer Complaint on children, are soon relieved by a few doses. A single Pill to a child of 6 years old, and the dose increased according to their strength and age.

In Asthmatic or Phthisical cases, where the laborious breathing and great oppression, with faintings, are fast sinking the patient to the brink of the grave, a few Pills, taking one every hour, with fennel or pepper-mint tea, will often enable the patient to walk about in a few hours.

The above valuable Medicine is Sold ONLY in Pittsburgh, by

J. P. & J. W. Skelton.

At their Wholesale and Retail Apothecary and Drug Store.
